

PUTNU MĀTE PUTNUS SAUCA

The Spirit of the Forest is Calling the Birds

Latvian folksong
Eng. transl. by Māra Sinka (*1991)

Latviešu tautasdziesma
Ilzes Arnes (*1953) apd.

A Andante cantabile

mp

Soprano

Put - nu mā - te put - nus sau - ca, a - ū, a - ū, ū,
Who's that wal - king through the bush - es? Ah ooh, ah ooh, ooh!

Alto

Put - nu mā - te put - nus sau - ca, ū,
Who's that wal - king through the bush - es? ooh!

6

S.

me - ža ma - lu stai - gā - da - ma, a - ū, a - ū, ū.
It's the Spi - rit of the For - est. Ah ohh, ah ooh, ooh!

A.

me - ža ma - lu stai - gā - da - ma, ū.
It's the Spi - rit of the For - est. ooh!

11

S.

Vai ir vi - si va - ka - rā - i, va - ka - rā - i, va - ka - rā - i, a - ū,
"Where are all the birds this eve - ning, birds this eve - ning, birds this eve - ning?" Ah ooh,

A.

Vai ir vi - si va - ka - rā - i, va - ka - rā - i, va - ka - rā - i,
"Where are all the birds this eve - ning, birds this eve - ning, birds this eve - ning?"

B Andante giocoso

16

S.

a - ū, ū.
ah ooh, ooh!

A.

p

— ū. Ru - be - nī - tis ru - bi - nā - ja pur - va bēr - za ga - li - ņā.
— ooh! Mis - sis Grouse is click - ing - cluck - ing, per - ching on the tal - lest tree,

23

S.

mp (legato)

Cie - la - vi - ņa
Wal - ly Wag - tail

A.

mp

Ir - bit' te - ka pa ce - li - ņu, ce - ku - li - ņu gro - zī dam'. Cie - la - vi - ņa balt - gal - vī - te Pen - ny Part - ridge waves her fea - thers as she wan - ders aim - less - ly. Wal - ly Wag - tail flit - ter - flut - ters